Department: Justice and Constitutional Development
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA
INTRODUCTION

The NAP does not belong to government only - it belongs to everyone in the country. The NAP applies to all government departments, chapter 9 institutions, civil society organisations, the private sector, media, labour and other sectors - therefore it is a national instrument owned and to be implemented by all in South Africa.

The NAP is the ideal opportunity for our country and its people to renew our commitment to the fight against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and all other forms of prejudice and intolerance.

All government departments are responsible for promoting and implementing the NAP together with other institutions and agencies.
WHAT IS THE NATIONAL ACTION PLAN (NAP)?

The NAP is an important tool to prevent and combat racist, sexist, homophobic, xenophobic and other discriminatory conduct and forms of prejudice that we have been experiencing in our country.

The NAP sets out - in clear and practical ways- what government, civil society, the media, academia, business, labour, sporting and religious bodies, as well as various other sectors, have to do to combat and prevent discrimination and prejudice.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE NAP?

As South Africans we should be realistic about the country’s problems with racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and other forms of intolerances and be willing to address it. Through the NAP we can build a non-racial, non-sexist society based on the values of human dignity equality and the advancement of human rights and freedom.

The NAP intends to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance through the provision of a comprehensive policy framework at both a private and public level. The NAP is not intended to replace existing laws and policies but to be complementary to existing legislation, policies and programmes which address inequality, inequity and discrimination.
SIGNIFICANCE OF THE NAP

The NAP provides a clear indication of the State’s intentions in its struggle against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance. It sets out measures and indicators over an initial five (5) year period which will need to be achieved, and reviewed in order to take into account progress made regarding its implementation.

THE NAP AIMS TO:

The main aims of the NAP is specifically to address the issue of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance in our country. In addition to existing measures, the NAP is also intended to combat xenophobia and related intolerance and to address the following:

- Promote human dignity through the promotion and protection of human rights;
- Raise awareness of anti-racism, equality and anti-discrimination issues and address the need to prevent, combat and address racism;
- Encourage the collection of data regarding racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance and allow for a more comprehensive assessment of their needs to effectively combat it;
- Ensure that the concerns of individuals and groups encountering racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance are more effectively addressed;
- Build a more equal society and strengthen the rule of law and democracy.
BENEFITS OF THE NAP

• We will have a decline in racism and xenophobia.
• Asylum seekers and refugees will feel safe in our country.
• The media will be held accountable for inciting racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance or perpetuating misinformation and harmful stereotypes.
• People will recognise their own racist and xenophobic attitudes as discriminatory and unacceptable and will work on changing them.
• People will not express their racist and xenophobic ideas privately or publicly because they will know that it will not be tolerated.
• Workplaces will have a zero tolerance policy against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and discrimination based on the mentioned grounds.
