GENERAL

Definitions

1. In the Regulations any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act bears that meaning and, unless the context otherwise indicates—
   "complainant" for purpose of the Regulations, means a requester or a third party;
   "Guide" means the guide contemplated in section 10 of the Act;
   "information officer" for purposes of the Regulations, includes the head of, or in relation to a private body, as defined in section 1 of the Act; and
   "the Act" means the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000).

CHAPTER 2
AVAILABILITY OF GUIDE

Obligations of Information Regulator

2. (1) The Information Regulator must make the Guide available in each of the official languages—
   (a) by publication in the Government Gazette;
(b) at the office of the Information Regulator, for inspection, during normal office hours;
(c) on the website of the Information Regulator; and
(d) to the Director-General of the Department of Government Communication and Information Systems.

(2) The Information Regulator must make available, upon the written request of an information officer on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 1 of Annexure A to the Regulations, the number of copies of the Guide in the official languages, as requested by the information officer.

(3) The Information Regulator may not charge any fee for—
(a) a copy of the Guide made available in terms of subregulation (2), except for postage where applicable; or
(b) inspection of a copy of the Guide at the office of the Information Regulator.

(4) (a) A person, other than an information officer may request a copy of the Guide, or any part thereof, from the Information Regulator on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 1 of Annexure A to the Regulations.
(b) The fees in relation to a copy of the Guide as provided for in item 1 of Annexure B will apply to a person contemplated in paragraph (a).

Obligations of information officers

3. (1) An information officer must cause—
(a) the Guide to be made available in each of the official languages on its website; and
(b) a copy of the Guide, in at least two of the official languages, at each of its offices, for public inspection during normal office hours.

(2) The information officer may not charge any fee for the inspection of a copy of the Guide at its offices.

(3) Any person, may request a copy of the Guide, or any part thereof, from the information officer on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 1 of Annexure A to the Regulations.

(4) The fees as provided for in items 1 and 10 of Annexure B to these Regulation will be charged for reproduction and postage.

CHAPTER 3
ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Automatic availability of certain records of public bodies

4. (1) The information officer of a public body, must compile and keep a description of the categories of records contemplated in section 15(1)(a) of the Act that are automatically available without a requester having to request access thereto.

(2) The description contemplated in subregulation (1) must be updated every month, or as soon as any amendment to the description occurs.

(3) The description must be made available—
(a) to the Information Regulator and uploaded by the Information Regulator on the website of the Information Regulator;
(b) for inspection at the office of the Information Regulator during normal office hours;
(c) on the website of the public body; and
(d) for inspection, at the offices of a public body concerned during normal office hours.
(4) A requester may request a copy of a record referred to in subregulation (1) and must be provided with such copy, upon payment of the fee for reproduction as provided for in items 2 to 9 of Annexure B to the Regulations.

Voluntary disclosure and automatic availability of certain records of private bodies

5. (1) The Head of a private body, must compile and keep a description of the categories of records contemplated in section 52(1)(a) of the Act that are—
(a) voluntary disclosed; or
(b) automatically available without a requester having to request access thereto.
(2) The description contemplated in subregulation (1) must be updated every month, or as soon as any amendment to the description occurs.
(3) The description must be made available—
(a) to the Regulator and uploaded by the Information Regulator on the website of the Information Regulator;
(b) for inspection at the registered office of the Information Regulator during normal office hours;
(c) on the website of the private body; and
(d) at the offices of a private body concerned during normal office hours.
(4) A requester may request a copy of a record referred to in subregulation (1) and must be provided with such copy, upon payment of the fee for reproduction, as provided for in Annexure B to the Regulations.

Availability of records of political parties

6. The records contemplated in section 52A(1)(b) of the Act must be available for inspection—
(a) from Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays, from 8h00 to 16h00 at the physical business address of a political party; and
(b) electronically on the website of the political party, if that political party has a website.”.

Request for access to information

7. (1) A request for access to a record as contemplated in sections 18(1) or 53(1) of the Act, must be made on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 2 of Annexure A to the Regulations, to the information officer.
(2) The information officer must, if a request for access to a record is made orally as a result of illiteracy or a disability of a requester, complete Form 2 of Annexure A to the Regulations on behalf of the requester and provide a copy thereof to the requester, as contemplated in section 18(3) of the Act.

Outcome of request and of fees payable

8. (1) The information officer must, if a request for access to a record referred to in regulation 7 of the Regulations is granted or refused, inform the requester of—
(a) his or her decision; and
(b) the fees payable as provided for in Annexure B to the Regulations, if applicable, on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 3 of Annexure A to the Regulations: Provided that a request for a copy of the Guide may not be refused.

(2) A person who requests—
   (a) a copy of the Guide or any part thereof as contemplated in regulations 2(4) and 3(3) of the Regulations;
   (b) a copy of a record contemplated in regulation 4 of the Regulations; or
   (c) access to a record as contemplated in regulations 5 or 7 of the Regulations, may be charged the fee for reproduction and postage, if applicable, as prescribed in Annexure B to the Regulations, if the request is granted.

(3) If—
   (a) the search for a record in respect of which a request for access has been made; and
   (b) the preparation of the record for disclosure, including any arrangements contemplated in section 29(2)(a) and (b)(ii) and (ii)(aa), would, in the opinion of the information officer, require more than six hours for these purposes, the information officer must on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 3 of Annexure A to the Regulations, inform the requester to pay as a deposit, a portion of the access fee to the record fee, set out in Annexure B to the Regulations: Provided that the amount payable as a deposit must not exceed one third of the amount payable, if the request is granted.

Internal appeal against decision of information officer of a public body

9. A complainant may lodge an internal appeal against a decision of the information officer of a public body as contemplated in section 75(1) of the Act, on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 4 of Annexure A to the Regulations.

CHAPTER 4 COMPLAINTS TO INFORMATION REGULATOR

Lodging of complaints

10. A complaint contemplated in section 77A of the Act, must be lodged in writing on a Form that corresponds substantially with Form 5 of Annexure A to the Regulations, to the Information Regulator.

Procedure regarding investigation of complaints

11. (1) (a) Upon receipt of a complaint contemplated in section 77A of the Act, the Information Regulator must on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 6 of Annexure A to the Regulations, acknowledge receipt of the complaint.
   (b) The Information Regulator must inform the complainant, as contemplated in section 77E of the Act, whether—
      (i) the Information Regulator will investigate the complaint further; or
      (ii) the complaint will be referred to the Enforcement Committee.

   (2) If the Information Regulator decides to investigate the complaint as contemplated in section 77C(1)(a) of the Act, it must within twenty working days after receipt of the complaint on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 7 of Annexure A to the Regulations—
      (a) bring the complaint to the attention of the information officer concerned; inform the information officer concerned of its intention to investigate the complaint; and
(c) request the information officer concerned to respond to the complaint and produce any item or document, on which he or she based his or her decision.

(3) The information officer concerned must within 10 working days after receipt of the complaint from the Information Regulator, respond in writing to the complaint and submit any item or document to the Information Regulator, in the manner the Information Regulator requests.

(4) For purposes of the investigation, the Information Regulator has all the powers and functions as determined in section 77G of the Act.

(5) The Information Regulator must within a reasonable time from the date of a decision being made or action being taken—
(a) keep the complainant and the information officer concerned and any other party to the matter, informed of the developments of the investigation; and
(b) inform the complainant, the information officer concerned and any other party to the matter of the results of the investigation, on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 8 to Annexure A to the Regulations.

(6) The Information Regulator may, during its investigation as contemplated in subregulation (1)(a) if it appears that the Enforcement Committee is better suited to investigate the complaint, refer the complaint to the Enforcement Committee, and must in writing inform the complainant accordingly.

Settlement of matter

12. (1) If it appears from a complaint or any written reply to the complaint—
(a) under section 77E(b)(ii) of the Act; or
(b) during a conciliation meeting, that it may be possible to secure a settlement between the parties, the Information Regulator may confer with the parties—
(i) in person;
(ii) by electronic communication means; or
(iii) by any other means,
as is deemed appropriate to endeavour to obtain a settlement.

(2) If during the process referred to in subregulation (1) the Regulator decides to convene a settlement meeting, the Regulator must, as soon as it is practically possible, inform the parties on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 9 to Annexure A of the date, time and place of the settlement meeting.

(3) For the purpose of settlement proceedings, the Information Regulator has the same powers as a conciliator contemplated in subregulations (3) and (4) of Regulation 13 of the Regulations.

(4) The Information Regulator must issue a settlement certificate on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 10 of Annexure A to the Regulations, within a reasonable time after the date of the conclusion of the settlement meeting.

(5) If no settlement is secured or if either or both of the parties did not wish to attend a settlement meeting, the Information Regulator must proceed with the matter as provided for in terms of section 77C of the Act.
Conciliation of matter

13. (1) If—

(a) on receipt of a complaint;
(b) during its investigation; or
(c) on receipt of any written response from the information officer of a public body or the head of a private body, in terms section 77E(b)(ii) of the Act, it becomes clear to the Information Regulator that the complaint, or certain aspects of the complaint, could successfully be settled, the Information Regulator, may conduct conciliation proceedings and act as conciliator in the matter.

(2) The Information Regulator must convene a conciliation meeting as soon as it is practically possible and inform the complainant, the information officer concerned or any other party to the matter, on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 11 of Annexure A to the Regulations of—

(a) the Information Regulator’s decision to act as a conciliator in the matter;
(b) the name of the conciliator;
(c) the date, time and place of the conciliation meeting; and
(d) that in the event of non-attendance of either party or both, the Information Regulator may summon and enforce the appearance of persons before the Regulator.

(3) The Information Regulator—

(a) may consolidate separate complaints, which are alleged to relate to the same matter by the same information officer, in order to deal with the complaints in the same conciliation proceedings;
(b) must ensure that all persons entitled to attend the conciliation meeting are notified within a reasonable time, of the date, time and place of the meeting;
(c) may request all the relevant documentation relating to the complaint from the complainant, information officer or other party to the matter;
(d) may confer with the parties in person, by electronic communication means, or by any other means as is deemed appropriate; and
(e) may—

(i) encourage parties to communicate with each other with a view to settle the matter;
(ii) assist the parties to narrow down the issues in dispute;
(iii) take an active role in the proceedings, including summarising the various options available to the parties and the strength and weaknesses of the matter;
(iv) offer opinions as to the issues of factual or legal disputes between the parties;
(v) give advice about cost implications and other legal consequences; and
(vi) make any proposal to the parties with a view to settle the matter.

(4) Where a conciliation meeting fails to take place, the Information Regulator must arrange for an alternative date and notify the persons entitled to attend the conciliation meeting accordingly.

(5) The Information Regulator must issue a conciliation certificate which corresponds substantially with Form 12 of Annexure A to the Regulations within a reasonable time after the date of the conclusion of the conciliation meeting.

(6) If the complaint is not resolved, or either or both of the parties did not attend a conciliation meeting, the Information Regulator must proceed with the complaint as provided for in terms of section 77C(1) of the Act.
Assessment

14. (1) A request by an information officer for an assessment in terms of section 77H(1) of the Act must be submitted to the Information Regulator in writing on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 13 of Annexure A to the Regulations, together with substantiated reasons for the request.

(2) If the Information Regulator—

(a) receives a request for an assessment; or
(b) on its own initiative decides, to make an assessment as contemplated in section 77H(1) of the Act, it must—

(i) inform the public or private body in writing on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 14 of Annexure A of the request for an assessment received, or of its decision to make an assessment on its own initiative as contemplated in subregulation (2)(b); and

(ii) request the public or private body to answer in writing, with substantiated reasons why an assessment is unnecessary, within the time specified by the Information Regulator.

(3) On receipt of any answer and substantiated reasons why an assessment is unnecessary, or after the date specified in the notice has expired, whether or not an answer and substantiated reasons were received, the Information Regulator must—

(a) decide whether an assessment will be conducted or not; and
(b) inform—

(i) the public or private body; and

(ii) if a request for assessment was received, the person who requested an assessment,

In writing on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 15 of Annexure A to the Regulations, whether or not, it has decided to conduct an assessment, within a reasonable time from the date that the decision was made.

(4) The—

(a) period of assessment; and
(b) manner of assessment, will be determined by the Information Regulator on a case by case basis.

(5) When making an assessment, the Information Regulator must take the following into account:

(a) The nature of the body in question;
(b) the services it provides to the public or a group of persons;
(c) the purpose of the information under assessment;
(d) the likely effect of non-compliance; or of future or continued non-compliance with the Act by the body concerned;
(e) whether such non-compliance has been committed before;
(f) whether the body was previously made aware of its earlier or current non-compliance; and

(g) the steps taken by the body to comply with the Act; and
(h) the most effective solution in the public interest to remedy the non-compliance.

(6) On conclusion of the assessment, the Information Regulator must compile an assessment report, containing its detailed findings and recommendations, if any.

(7) If the Information Regulator has made a finding that the public or private body is not complying with the provisions of the Act, the Information Regulator must deal with the matter as if a complaint is lodged with it in terms of section 77A.

(8) The Information Regulator must notify—
(a) the public or private body; and
(b) the person who requested an assessment, if a request was received, of any decision made, or action taken, or view formed on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 16 of Annexure A to the Regulations, within a reasonable time from the date that the decision was made or action taken or view formed.

CHAPTER 5
PART A
OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Offences and penalties

15. An information officer who willfully or in a grossly negligent manner charges a fee—
(a) for inspection of the Guide or any record;
(b) other than the fee prescribed in terms of the Regulations;

FORM 5
LODGING OF COMPLAINT
[Regulation 10]

Note:
1. This form is designed to assist the Requester (hereinafter referred to as “the Complainant”) in requesting a review of a public or private body’s response or non-response to a request for access to records under the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”). Please fill out this form and send it to the Information Regulator (“Regulator”) or complete the online complaint form available at https://www.justice.gov.za/inforeg/.
2. PAIA gives the public a right to file a complaint with the Regulator about any of the nature of complaints detailed in part E of this complaint form.
3. It is the policy of the Regulator to defer investigating or to reject a complaint if the Complainant has not first given the public or private body (herein after referred to as “the Body”) an opportunity to respond to and attempt to resolve the issue. To help the Body address your concerns prior to approaching the Regulator, you are required to complete the prescribed PAIA form and submit it to the Body.
4. A copy of this form will be provided to the Body that is the subject of your complaint. The information you provide on this form, attached to this form or that you supply later, will only be used to attempt to resolve your dispute, unless otherwise stated herein.
5. The Regulator will only accept your complaint once you confirm having complied with the prerequisites below.
6. Please attach copies of the following documents, if you have them:
   • Copy of the form to the organisation requesting access to records;
   • The organisation’s response to your complaint or access request;
   • Any other correspondence between you and the organisation regarding your request;
   • Copy of the appeal form, if your complaint relate to a public body;
   • The organisation’s response to your appeal;
   • Any other correspondence between you and the organisation regarding your appeal;
   • Documentation authorizing you to act on behalf of another person (if applicable);
   • Court order or court documents relevant to your complaint, if any.
7. If the space provided for in this Form is inadequate, submit information as an Annexure to this Form and sign each page.

PART F
EXPECTED OUTCOME

How do you think the Regulator can assist you? Describe the result or outcome that you seek.

PART G
AGREEMENTS

The legal basis for the following agreements is explained in the Privacy Notice on how to file your complaint document. In order for the Regulator to process your complaint, you need to check each one of the checkboxes below to show your agreement:

☐ I agree that the Regulator may use the information provided in my complaint to assist it in researching issues relating to the promotion the right of access to information as well as the protection of the right to privacy in South Africa. I understand that the Regulator will never include my personal or other identifying information in any public report, and that my personal information is still protected by Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013. I understand that if I do not agree, the Regulator will still process my complaint.

☐ The information in this Complaint Form is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

☐ I authorize the Regulator to collect my personal complaint information (such as the information about me in this complaint form) and use it to process my human rights complaint relating to the right of access to information and/or the protection of the right to privacy.

☐ I authorize anyone (such as an employer, service provider, witness) who has information needed to process my complaint to share it with the Regulator. The Regulator can obtain this information by talking to witnesses or asking for written records. Depending on the nature of the complaint, these records could include personnel files or employer data, medical or hospital records, and financial or taxpayer information.

☐ If any of my contact information changes during the complaint process, it is my responsibility to inform the Regulator; otherwise my complaint could experience a delay or even be closed.
