(2) For purposes of satisfying himself or herself that there is sufficient evidence to warrant a prosecution in the foreign State the magistrate shall accept as conclusive proof a certificate which appears to him or her to be issued by an appropriate authority in charge of the prosecution in the foreign State concerned, stating that it has sufficient evidence at its disposal to warrant the prosecution of the person concerned.

(3) If the magistrate finds that the evidence does not warrant the issue of an order of committal or that the required evidence is not forthcoming within a reasonable time, he shall discharge the person brought before him.

(4) The magistrate issuing the order of committal shall forthwith forward to the Minister a copy of the record of the proceedings together with such report as he may deem necessary.

S. 10 substituted by [s. 8 of Act 77 of 1996.]

11 Minister may order or refuse surrender to foreign State

The Minister may-

- (a) order any person committed to prison under section 10 to be surrendered to any person authorized by the foreign State to receive him or her; or

- has been served;
 - (ii) where such person is serving, or is about to serve a sentence of a term of imprisonment, until such sentence has been completed;
 - (iii) at all, or before the expiration of a period fixed by the Minister, if he or she is satisfied that by reason of the trivial nature of the offence or by reason of the surrender not being required in good faith or in the interests of justice, or that for any other reason it would, having regard to the distance, the facilities for communication and to all the circumstances of the case, be unjust or unreasonable or too severe a punishment to surrender the person concerned; or
 - (iv) if he or she is satisfied that the person concerned will be prosecuted or punished or prejudiced at his or her trial in the foreign State by reason of his or her gender, race, religion, nationality or political opinion.
- S. 11 substituted by s. 9 of [Act 77 of 1996.]

12 Enquiry where offence committed in associated State

- (c) at all, or before the expiration of a period fixed by him or her, or make such order as to him or her seems just if he or she is of the opinion that-
 - (i) by reason of the trivial nature of the offence or by reason of the surrender not being required in good faith or in the interests of justice, or that for any other reason it would, having regard for the distance, the facilities for communication and to all the circumstances of the case, be unjust or unreasonable or too severe a punishment to surrender the person concerned; or
 - (ii) the person concerned will be prosecuted or punished or prejudiced at his or her trial in the associated State by reason of his or her gender, race, religion, nationality or political opinion.

(3) If the magistrate finds that the evidence does not warrant the issue of an order under subsection (1) or that the required evidence is not forthcoming within a reasonable time and the delay is not caused by the person brought before him or her, he or she shall discharge that person.

S. 12 substituted by s. 10 of [Act 77 of 1996.]
