Substitution of rule 10A of Rules

2. The following rule is hereby substituted for rule 10A of the Rules:

“10A. Joinder of provincial or national executive authorities and service on Rules Board for Courts of Law

(1) If in any proceedings before the court, the validity of a law is challenged, whether in whole or in part and whether on constitutional grounds or otherwise, the party challenging the validity of the law must join the provincial or national executive authorities responsible for the administration of the law in the proceedings.

(2) Where a challenge referred to in subrule (1) is made against a rule made by the Rules Board for Courts of Law, the party challenging the rule must, at the time when the challenge is made, serve on the Rules Board for Courts of Law, a notice setting out the basis of the challenge, together with copies of all documents in which the challenge is referred to.”

Amendment of rule 49 of the Rules

3. Rule 49 of the Rules is hereby amended by the repeal of subrule (11).

Amendment of rule 53 of the Rules

4. Rule 53 of the Rules is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subrule (1) of the following subrule:

“(1) Save where any law otherwise provides, all proceedings to bring under review the decision or proceedings of any inferior court and of any tribunal, board or officer performing judicial, quasi-judicial or administrative functions shall be by way of notice of motion directed and delivered by the party seeking to review such decision or proceedings to the magistrate, presiding officer or chairperson of the court, tribunal or board or to the officer, as the case may be, and to all other parties affected-

(a) calling upon such persons to show cause why such decision or proceedings should not be reviewed and corrected or set aside, and

(b) calling upon the magistrate, presiding officer, chairperson or officer, as the case may be, to despatch, within fifteen days after receipt of the notice of motion, to the registrar the record of such proceedings sought to be corrected or set aside, together with such reasons as he or she is by law required or desires to give or make, and to notify the applicant that he or she has done so.”

(b) by the substitution for subrule (3) of the following subrule:

“(3) The registrar shall make available to the applicant the record despatched to him or her as aforesaid upon such terms as the registrar thinks appropriate to ensure its safety, and the applicant shall thereupon cause copies of such portions of the record as may be necessary for the purposes of the review to be made and shall furnish the registrar with two copies and each of the other parties with one copy thereof, in each case certified by the applicant as true copies. The costs of transcription, if any, shall be borne by the applicant and shall be costs in the cause.”

(c) by the substitution for subrule (4) of the following subrule:

“(4) The applicant may within ten days after the registrar has made the record available to him or her, by delivery of a notice and accompanying affidavit, amend, add to or vary the terms of his or her notice of motion and supplement the supporting affidavit.”

(d) by the substitution for subrule (5) of the following subrule:

“(5) Should the presiding officer, chairperson or officer, as the case may be, or any party affected desire to oppose the granting of the order prayed in the notice of motion, he or she shall-

(a) within fifteen days after receipt by him or her of the notice of motion or any amendment thereof deliver notice to the applicant that he or she intends so to oppose and shall in such notice appoint an address within 15 kilometres of the office of the registrar at which he or she will accept notice and service of all process in such proceedings; and

(b) within thirty days after the expiry of the time referred to in subrule (4) hereof, deliver any affidavits he or she may desire in answer to the allegations made by the applicant.”

Commencement

5. These rules commence on 22 May 2015.
