21 July 2021

Access to justice for all – Department and Deputy Minister to host community radio phone-in

In the spirit of serving and as part of the DoJCD's Mandela Month activities, the Deputy Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, Mr John Jeffery, as well as key officials from the Department, will engage with members of the public by way of a phone-in community radio programme on Thursday, 22 July 2021.

The Deputy Minister and the officials will be providing information and advice on how to access various justice services. Officials from Legal Aid SA will also participate in the programme and be able to offer legal advice to callers.

The phone-in community radio programme will be carried on the Government Communication and Information System (GCIS) community radio platform and has been made possible by community radio stations' contribution to celebrating the life and contribution of the late President Nelson Mandela.

Date : 21 July 2021
Time : 18h05 – 19h05

A comprehensive list of participating community radio stations is available on the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development's Twitter account @DOJCD_ZA, Facebook page (DOJ&CD) and the departmental website. Please contact Mr Victor Mateane Phala for on 084 888 5162 or Vphala@justice.gov.za should your community radio station wish to participate in the show.
