MEDIA ADVISORY

10 September 2021

THE OFFICE OF THE CHIEF MASTER OF THE HIGH COURT TO HOST A VIRTUAL DIALOGUE ON WILLS AND ADMINISTRATION OF DECEASED ESTATES

The Office of the Chief Master of the High Court will on Monday 13 September 2021, host a virtual dialogue on Wills and Administration of Deceased Estates as part of departmental Public Service Month activities.

The virtual dialogue will mark the commencement of the annual Wills Week campaign which will take place from 13 -17 September 2021. The Wills Week campaign seeks to encourage members of the public to draft Wills.

Members of the public will during the dialogue, be afforded a valuable opportunity to engage on the significance of having a Will and on the Administration of Deceased Estates. The dialogue will also be used to inform members of the public about various opportunities for them to draft Wills during Wills Week.

The virtual dialogue will be hosted under the following details:

Date: 13 September 2021
