DRAFT AMENDED UNIFORM RULE 38(9)

Note:

The Rules Board is in the process of amending Rule 38 to provide for the taking of evidence by audio-visual link. Proposed draft amended subrule (9) is inserted below for information.

38 Procuring evidence for trial

(9)(a) A court may, on application on notice by any party and where it appears convenient or in the interests of justice, make an order for evidence to be taken through audiovisual link.

(b) A court making an order in terms of paragraph (a) must give such directions which it considers appropriate for the taking and recording of such evidence.

(c) An application in terms of this rule must be accompanied by a draft order setting out the terms of the order sought, including particulars of—

(i) the witness who is required to adduce evidence through audiovisual link;

(ii) the address of the premises from where such evidence will be given; and

(iii) the address of the premises to where the evidence will be transmitted by audiovisual link.

(d) For purposes of this rule "audiovisual link" means facilities that enable both audio and visual communications between a witness and persons in a courtroom, to be transmitted in real-time as they take place.

49 Civil Appeals from the High Court

(1)(a)(i) When leave to appeal is required, it may on a statement of the grounds therefor, be requested at the time of the judgment or order.

(ii) Every application for leave to appeal which is made subsequent to the giving of a judgment or order shall be made and every appeal and cross appeal shall be prosecuted via the e-justice system: Provided that where a party does not have access to the e-justice system, such party shall be assisted by the registrar or the help desk referred to in rule 1A(17).

(b) [When leave to appeal is required and it has not been requested at the time of the judgment or order, application for such leave shall be made and the grounds therefor shall be furnished within fifteen days after the date of the order appealed against: Provided that when the reasons or the full reasons for the court's order are given on a later date than the date of the order, such application may be made within fifteen days after such later date: Provided further that the court may, upon good cause shown, extend the aforementioned periods of fifteen days.]

When leave to appeal is required and it has not been applied for at the time the judgment or order is given, application for such leave, stating the grounds for the application, shall be made within fifteen days after the date of the order appealed against: Provided that:

(i) when the reasons or the full reasons for the court's order are given on a date later than the date of the order, such application may be made within fifteen days after such later date: and

(ii) the court may, upon good cause shown, extend the aforementioned periods of fifteen days.

(c) When in giving an order the court declares that the reasons for the order will be furnished to any of the parties on application, such application shall be delivered within ten days after the date of the order.

(d) The application mentioned in paragraph (b) above shall be set down on a date arranged by the registrar who shall give written notice thereof to the parties via the e-justice system.

(e) Such application shall be heard via the e-justice system by the judge who presided at the trial or hearing or, if he is not available, by another judge of the division of which the said judge, when he so presided, was a member.

(2) If leave to appeal to the full court is granted the notice of appeal shall be delivered to all the parties within twenty days after the date upon which leave was granted or within such longer period as may upon good cause shown be permitted.

(3) A notice of cross-appeal shall be delivered within ten days after delivery of the notice of appeal or within such longer period as may upon good cause shown be permitted and the provisions of these Rules with regard to appeals shall mutatis mutandis apply to cross-appeals.

(4) Every notice of appeal and cross-appeal shall state-

(a) what part of the judgment or order is appealed against; and

(b) the particular respect in which the variation of the judgment or order is sought.

(5) In the case of an appeal against the judgment or order of the court of the Witwatersrand Local Division, the judge president of the Transvaal Provincial Division shall determine whether the appeal should be heard by the full court of the said local division. As soon as possible after receipt of the notice of appeal or cross-appeal, if any, the registrar of the local division shall ascertain from the judge president his direction in the particular case. If the judge president has directed that the appeal be heard by the full court of the Witwatersrand Local Division, the said registrar shall immediately inform the parties of the direction. If not so directed by the judge president, the said registrar shall inform the registrar of the provincial division as well as the parties accordingly.

Note:

Subrule (5) is proposed to be repealed since it is considered that the administrative management of the allocation should be done by the JP in terms of section 8 of the Superior Courts Act, 2013.

(6)(a) [Within sixty days after delivery of a notice of appeal, an appellant shall make written application to the registrar of the division where the appeal is to be heard for a date for the hearing of such appeal and shall at the same time furnish him with his full residential address and the name and address of every other party to the appeal and if the appellant fails to do so a respondent may within ten days after the expiry of the said period of sixty days, as in the case of the appellant, apply for the set down of the appeal or cross-appeal which he may have noted. If no such application is made by either party the appeal and cross-appeal shall be deemed to have lapsed: Provided that a respondent shall have the right to apply for an order for his wasted costs.]

(i) Within sixty days after delivery of a notice of appeal, an appellant shall make application to the registrar of the division where the appeal is to be heard, for a date for the hearing of such appeal and shall at the same time furnish the registrar with the appellant's legal representative's physical and electronic mail address or if the appellant is unrepresented, then the appellant's full residential address and an electronic mail address, if the appellant has an electronic mail address and the name and address of every other party to the appeal.

(ii) Should the appellant fail to apply for a date of hearing as referred to in subparagraph (i) a respondent may within ten days after the expiry of the said period of sixty days, as in the case of the appellant, apply for the set down of the appeal or cross-appeal which such respondent may have noted.

(iii) If no such application is made by either party the appeal and cross-appeal shall be deemed to have lapsed and either party may apply to the court for an order confirming the lapsing of the appeal: Provided that a respondent shall have the right to apply for an order for any wasted costs.

(b) The court to which the appeal is made may, on application of the appellant or cross-appellant, and upon good cause shown, reinstate an appeal or cross-appeal which has lapsed.

(7)(a) [At the same time as the application for a date for the hearing of an appeal in terms of subrule (6)(a) of this rule the appellant shall file with the registrar three copies of the record on appeal and shall furnish two copies to the respondent. The registrar shall further be provided with a complete index and copies of all papers, documents and exhibits in the case, except formal and immaterial documents: Provided that such omissions shall be referred to in the said index. If the necessary copies of the record are not ready at that stage, the registrar may accept an application for a date of hearing without the necessary copies if-

(i) the application is accompanied by a written agreement between the parties that the copies of the record may be handed in late; or

(ii) failing such agreement, the appellant delivers an application together with an affidavit in which the reasons for his omission to hand in the copies of the record in time are set out and in which is indicated that an application for condonation of the omission will be made at the hearing of the appeal.

(i) Simultaneously with the application for a date for the hearing of an appeal in terms of subrule (6)(a), the appellant shall deliver a copy of the record on appeal.

(ii) The appellant shall in addition deliver a complete index and copies of all papers, documents and exhibits in the case, except formal and immaterial documents: Provided that such omissions shall be referred to in the said index.

(b) The two copies of the record to be served on the respondent shall be served at the same time as the filing of the aforementioned three copies with the registrar.]

(b) The registrar of the court that is to hear the appeal or cross-appeal shall thereupon assign a date for the hearing of the appeal or for any application for condonation and the appeal, as the case may be, and shall set the appeal down for hearing on the said date and shall give the parties at least twenty days' notice of the date so assigned.

[(c) After delivery of the copies of the record, the registrar of the court that is to hear the appeal or cross-appeal shall assign a date for the hearing of the appeal or for the application for condonation and appeal, as the case may be, and shall set the appeal down for hearing on the said date and shall give the parties at least twenty days' notice in writing of the date so assigned.]

[(d) If the party who applied for a date for the hearing of the appeal neglects or fails to file or deliver the said copies of the record within 40 days after the acceptance by the registrar of the application for a date of hearing in terms of subrule (7)(a) the other party may approach the court for an order that the application has lapsed.]

[(8)(a) Copies referred to in subrule (7) shall be clearly typed on A.4 standard paper in double spacing, paginated and bound and in addition every tenth line on every page shall be numbered.

(b) The left side of each page shall be provided with a margin of at least 35 mm that shall be left clear, except in the case of exhibits that are duplicated by photoprinting, where it is impossible to obtain a margin with the said dimensions. Where the margin of the said exhibits is so small that parts of the documents will be obscured by binding, such documents shall be mounted on sheets of A4 paper and folded back to ensure that the prescribed margin is provided.]

(8) The record on appeal in subrule (7)(a)(i) shall be clearly typed in double spacing, the pages thereof shall be consecutively numbered and every tenth line on each page shall be numbered.

[(9) By consent of the parties, exhibits and annexures having no bearing on the point at issue in the appeal and immaterial portions of lengthy documents may be omitted. Such consent, setting out what documents or parts thereof have been omitted, shall be signed by the parties and shall be included in the record on appeal. The court hearing the appeal may order that the whole of the record be placed before it.]

(9) By agreement between the parties, exhibits and annexures having no bearing on the point at issue in the appeal and immaterial portions of lengthy documents may be omitted. Such agreement, setting out what documents or parts thereof have been omitted, shall be signed by the parties and shall be included in the record on appeal: Provided that the court hearing the appeal may order that the whole of the record be made available.

[(10) When the decision of an appeal turns exclusively on a point of law, the parties may agree to submit such appeal to the court in the form of a special case, in which event copies shall be submitted of only such portions of the record as may be necessary for a proper decision of the appeal: Provided that the court hearing the appeal may require that the whole of the record of the case be placed before it.]

(10) When the decision of an appeal turns exclusively on a point of law, the parties may agree to submit such appeal to the court in the form of a special case, in which event only such portions of the record as may be necessary for a proper decision of the appeal shall be delivered: Provided that the court hearing the appeal may order that the whole of the record of the case be made available.

(11) .....

(12) If the order referred to in subrule (11) is carried into execution by order of the court the party requesting such execution shall, unless the court otherwise orders, before such execution enter into such security as the parties may agree or the registrar may decide for the restitution of any sum obtained upon such execution. The registrar's decision shall be final.

Note:

Subrule (11) has been repealed. The Rules Board intends to repeal subrules (12) and (14) which refer to subrule (11).

(13)(a) Unless the respondent waives his or her right to security or the court in granting leave to appeal or subsequently on application to it, has released the appellant wholly or partially from that obligation, the appellant shall, before lodging [copies of] the record on appeal with the registrar, enter into good and sufficient security for the respondent's costs of appeal.

(b) In the event of failure by the parties to agree on the amount of security, the registrar shall fix the amount and the appellant shall enter into security in the amount so fixed or such percentage thereof as the court has determined, as the case may be.

(14) The provisions of subrules (12) and (13) shall not be applicable to the Government of the Republic of South Africa or any provincial administration.

(15) Not later than fifteen days before the appeal is heard the appellant shall deliver a concise and succinct statement of the main points (without elaboration) which he or she intends to argue on appeal, as well as a list of the authorities to be tendered in support of each point, and not later than ten days before the appeal is heard the respondent shall deliver a similar statement. [Three additional copies shall in each case be filed with the registrar.]

(16) A notice of appeal in terms of section 76 of the Patents Act, 1978 (Act 57 of 1978), or section 63 of the Trade Marks Act, 1963 (Act 62 of 1963), may be served on the patent agent referred to in the Patents Act, 1978, or the agent referred to in section 8 of the Trade Marks Act, 1963, who represented the respondent in the proceedings in respect of which an appeal is noted.

(17) In the case of appeals to the full court in terms of the provisions of a statute in which the procedure to be followed is laid down, this rule is applicable as far as provision is made for matters not regulated by the statute.

(18) Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule the judge president may, in consultation with the parties concerned, direct that a contemplated appeal be dealt with as an urgent matter and order that it be disposed of, and the appeal be prosecuted, at such time and in such manner as to him seems meet.

(19)(a) Appeals shall be heard via the e-justice system, unless the court hearing the appeal otherwise directs:

(b) Any party who does not have access to the e-justice system shall inform the registrar in writing within 15 days of notification of the date of set down of the appeal for hearing.

50 Civil Appeals from Magistrates' Courts

(1) An appeal to the court against the decision of a magistrate in a civil matter shall be prosecuted within 60 days after the noting of such appeal, and unless so prosecuted it shall be deemed to have lapsed.

(2) The prosecution of an appeal shall ipso facto operate as the prosecution of any cross-appeal which has been duly noted.

(3) If a cross-appeal has been noted, and the appeal lapses, the cross-appeal shall also lapse, unless application for a date of hearing for such cross-appeal is made to the registrar within twenty days after the date of the lapse of such appeal.

(4)(a) [The appellant shall, within 40 days of noting the appeal, apply to the registrar in writing and with notice to all other parties for the assignment of a date for the hearing of the appeal and shall at the same time make available to the registrar in writing his full residential and postal addresses and the address of his attorney if he is represented.]

The appellant or such appellant's legal representative shall, within 40 days of noting the appeal, apply to the registrar in writing for the assignment of a date for the hearing of the appeal and shall simultaneously:

(i) give notice to all other parties; and

(ii) if the appellant is legally represented, such legal representative shall inform the registrar in writing of the legal representative's physical and electronic mail address; or

(iii) if the appellant is not legally represented the appellant shall inform the registrar of his or her full residential and postal addresses and an electronic mail address if the appellant has electronic mail.

(b) In the absence of such an application by the appellant, the respondent or the respondent's legal representative may at any time before the expiry of the period of 60 days referred to in subrule (1) apply for a date of hearing in like manner.

(c) Upon receipt of such an application [from] by or on behalf of the appellant or respondent, the appeal shall be deemed to have been duly prosecuted.

(5)(a) Upon receipt of such application, the registrar shall forthwith assign a date of hearing, which date shall be at least 40 days after the receipt of the said application, unless all parties consent in writing to an earlier date: Provided that the registrar shall not assign a date of hearing until the provisions of subrule (7)(a), (b), and (c) have been duly complied with.

(b) The registrar shall give the parties and the clerk of the court from which the appeal emanated, at least 20 days' written notice of the date of set down.

(6) A notice of set down of a pending appeal shall ipso facto operate as a set down of any cross-appeal and vice versa.

(7)(a) [The applicant shall simultaneously with the lodging of the application for a date for the hearing of the appeal referred to in subrule (4) lodge with the registrar two copies of the record: Provided that where such an appeal is to be heard by more than two judges, the applicant shall, upon the request of the registrar, lodge a further copy of the record for each additional judge.]

The applicant shall simultaneously with the application for a date for the hearing of the appeal referred to in subrule (4) file with the registrar and serve on all other parties a copy of the record certified in terms of paragraph (c): Provided that where any party does not have access to the e-justice system the applicant shall furnish such party with two copies of the record.

(b) [Such copies shall be clearly typed on foolscap paper in double spacing, and the pages thereof shall be consecutively numbered and as from second January 1968, such copies shall be so typed on A4 standard paper referred to in rule 62(2) or on foolscap paper and after expiration of a period of twelve months from the aforesaid date on such A4 standard paper only. In addition every tenth line on each page shall be numbered.]

The record shall be clearly typed in double spacing, the pages thereof shall be consecutively numbered and every tenth line on each page shall be numbered.

(c)[The record shall contain a correct and complete copy of the pleadings, evidence and all documents necessary for the hearing of the appeal, together with an index thereof, and the copies lodged with the registrar shall be certified as correct by the attorney or party lodging the same or the person who prepared the record.]

The record shall contain a correct and complete copy of the pleadings, evidence and all documents necessary for the hearing of the appeal, together with an index thereof, and shall be certified as correct by the legal practitioner or party filing the record or by the person who prepared the record.

(d) [The party lodging the copies of the record shall not less than fifteen days prior to the date of the hearing of the appeal also furnish each of the other parties with two copies thereof, certified as aforesaid.]

(8)(a) [Save in so far as these affect the merits of an appeal, subpoenas, notices of trial, consents to postponements, schedules of documents, notices to produce or inspect, and other documents of a formal nature shall be omitted from the copies of the record prepared in terms of the foregoing subrule. A list thereof shall be included in the record.]

Save in so far as these affect the merits of an appeal, subpoenas, notices of trial, consents to postponements, schedules of documents, notices to produce or inspect, and other documents of a formal nature shall be omitted from the record prepared in terms of subrule (7): Provided that a list thereof shall be included in the record.

(b)(i) With the written consent of the parties any exhibit or other portion of the record which has no bearing on the point in issue on appeal may be omitted from the record.

(ii) If a portion has been so omitted from the record, the written consent signed by or on behalf of the parties and noting the omission shall be filed, together with the incomplete record, with the Registrar.

(iii) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) the court hearing the appeal may at any time request the complete original record and take cognisance of everything appearing therein.

(c) When an appeal is to be decided exclusively on a point of law, the parties may agree to submit such appeal to the court in the form of a special case, as referred to in rule 33 of the Rules, in which event copies may be submitted to the court of such portions only of the record which in the opinion of the parties may be necessary for a proper decision of the appeal: Provided that the court hearing the appeal may request that the entire original record of the case be placed before the court.

(9) [Not less than fifteen days before the appeal is heard the appellant shall deliver one copy of a concise and succinct statement of the main points (without elaboration) which he intends to argue on appeal, as well as a list of the authorities to be tendered in support of each point, and not less than ten days before the appeal is heard the respondent shall deliver a similar statement. Three additional copies shall be lodged with the registrar in each case.]

(a) Not less than fifteen days before the appeal is heard the appellant shall deliver a concise and succinct statement of the main points (without elaboration) which the appellant intends to argue on appeal, as well as a list of the authorities to be tendered in support of each point.

(b) Not less than ten days before the appeal is heard the respondent shall deliver a similar statement.

(10) Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule the judge president may, in consultation with the parties concerned, direct that a contemplated appeal be dealt with as an urgent matter and order that it be disposed of, and the appeal be prosecuted, at such time and in such manner as to him seems meet.

51 Criminal Appeals from Magistrates' Courts

(1) An appeal by a convicted person against a conviction, sentence or order made by a magistrate's court in a criminal matter, or an appeal by the director of public prosecutions or other prosecutor against a dismissal of a summons or charge or other decision of a magistrate's court in such a matter, shall be set down by the director of public prosecutions or registrar on notice to the appellant or his or her legal representative for hearing on such day as the judge president may appoint for such matters
