

South African Law Reform Commission reviews legislation administered by the DPSA

The South African Law Reform Commission (SALRC) has published a discussion paper on the revision of legislation administered by the Department of Public Service and Administration (DPSA) for public comments.

The aim of this review is to ensure that all pieces of legislation that are administered by the DPSA are compliant with section 9 (Equality) of the Constitution and to identify redundant and obsolete provisions.

The SALRC invites comments on the discussion paper with a view of compiling a report for the Minister of Public Service and Administration. Inputs may be submitted to Ms T Prinsloo by email: TPrinsloo@justice.gov.za or by post to Private Bag X668, Pretoria, 0001

The discussion paper may be accessed for free on the SALRC website <http://salawreform.justice.gov.za> or interested parties may contact Mr J Kabini at (012) 6226327 for a copy. The closing date for comments on the discussion paper is 30 November 2016.

Issued by the Secretary, SALRC, Centurion
