

INVITATION TO ATTEND A WORKSHOP ON ISSUE PAPER 32
THE RIGHT TO KNOW ONE'S OWN BIOLOGICAL ORIGINS

Dear Madam/Sir

The South African Law Reform Commission (SALRC) has published Issue Paper 32 on the Right to Know One's Own Biological Origins. The object of this investigation is to ascertain whether a child should have a legal right to know his or her biological origins. This investigation deals with medically assisted reproduction, surrogacy, adoption, registration of birth, disputed paternity, child abandonment and medical tourism. Issue Paper 32 is available on the internet at <http://salawreform.justice.gov.za/ipapers/ip32-prj140-BioOrigins-2017.pdf>.

The SALRC hereby invites you to attend a workshop on Issue Paper 32. The purpose of the workshop is to discuss the content of Issue Paper 32 and to seek to answer the questions raised in the issue paper. The SALRC will consider feedback and suggestions received during the workshop and wider consultation process in order to draft a discussion paper.

Workshops will be held in different provinces. The SALRC will provide light refreshments. Workshop attendees will be responsible for their own transport and accommodation.

If you will be attending a workshop, please complete the attached RSVP Registration Form. Completed RSVP Registration Forms must be sent to the researcher, Miss Veruksha Bhana by email to VBhana@justice.gov.za or by fax to 086 216 7313. For telephonic enquiries, please contact Miss Bhana on 012 622 6332.

We look forward to engaging with you at the workshop.

Yours sincerely
Veruksha Bhana
